

SuperStrike vs. Snowball

By: Daveon Lopez

On a boat far far away there was a superhero, his name was SuperStrike. His power was too shoot lightning out of his hands.

In the Antarctic there was a bad guy. His name was SnowBall. He had a power too, he could shoot snowballs from his hands.

SuperStrike was very angry at Snowball. He wanted him to stop doing evil things. His plan was to send SnowBall to somewhere else in outer space.

He told him to come to his boat.

Once SnowBall was on SuperStrike's boat they had a battle, they fought hard. Both of them were strong and smart.

They fought and kept punching and kicking each other back and forth.

CRASH! BOOM! SKADOOSH!

Super Strike won the battle and sent Snowball to outer space, he stayed there on a planet all alone.

After that, Super Strike wanted to back to the city to go home. He didn't see anyone and went to bed. They never saw each other or had a battle again.

Everyone lived happily ever after.
