

When the King Met a Bad Alien

By: Elaina Wells

Once upon a time

there was a shiny castle. The castle had a crown on top that said "Kingdom" on it. The castle had five towers.

The alien had a plan to steal the king's crown and hid it in the crystal cave.

Kingdom

A king and knight lived the castle. The king wore a crown that matched the castle.
The knight was tall and shiny from his aremer. The knight's name was Sir Camelot.

One day the kingdom heard a boom. “What was that?” asked the King. The lights went off, and when they came back on the King’s crown was missing.

“Where is my crown?” yelled the King. The knight said “I don’t know”. Someone stole the crown and the King was very angry. “I’ll find the crown” said the knight.

He went to the Butterfly cave to look their first. He didn't find the crown there, all he saw was Butterflies.

After that, He went to the Crystal Cave and looked there. He dug in the rocks and saw crystals.

He dug deeper in the rocks and deeper and deeper until he found the crown. Finally with the crown he headed back to the castle.

“Thank you Sir Camelot for finding my crown” said the King.

When the Alien found out that found the crown, he got very angry. He flew to outer space and to the moon.

Back at the Castle they finished their tea with their party. The Alien never bothered them again, and they lived happily ever after.

The End

© K W Leung